M. V. Mosbach, the mammoth distiller, of Owensboro, Ky., an uncompromising gold Democrat, was at the St. Nicholas Monday. He cautions Kentucky to the silver Democrats this year. He says the Republican State Administration has done nothing to commend itself.—Enquirer.

On account of the failure to agree on a wage scale all the union iron and steel works around Pittsburgh are closed down making between 75,000 and 80,000 men idle. And thus does prosperity prosper! Open the mills not the mints was the war-cry of the Republicans last year. It is the mills and the mints in the shield which this year, so says W. P. Walton in his inimitable rhetoric.

An old bank cashier, a venerable and honest man, who was led off by the gold standard devil, said to the Louisville Dispatch reporter: "The election of McKinley and the continuance of the gold standard were mistakes. I helped to bring the condition about and the mistake I made is now plain to me. Since the election I have studied the money question more than ever before, and I am now convinced that nothing but bimetalism will save our country and make our people prosperous again."

The basis of representation in the bi-annual convention at Louisville, July 14, will be one for every 200 votes cast for Cleveland in 1892, instead of making the entire vote for the Palmer and Buckner ticket in 1896 the basis, says the Stanford Journal. In the one case there would be 87 and in the other not very many more. The ticket only polled a little over 5,000 votes in Kentucky, with Buckner's prestige and popularity. The nominee of next week's convention would poll the half of that number.

The Iowa caucus: In a letter to the Iowa convention, Mr. Cleveland refers to the so-called National Democrats as the bright lights of true Democracy. There are those, however, who contend that the ex-President doesn't know what Democracy is and is so far from the touch of common people that he has no idea of their condition or their needs.

The contest for city offices was never more vigorous than at present. Citizens should remember that there are places to be filled of great importance to the welfare of the community, and no effort should be spared by any man who is interested in the success of the Democratic party and in the welfare of the city of Richmond, to see that clean, able, and honest men are nominated for every office. Every Democrat owes it to his party to use his influence for the election of the best possible ticket, and the party owes it to the city to nominate only such men as will make capable and efficient officers. The Democrats of Richmond should all vote in the primary tomorrow.

ALL PIKES FREE IN WOODFORD.

The last turnpike in Woodford county has been freed at a cost of $40,000 for all. There are 200 miles and the original estimate of their cost was $75,000. The contracts have been made on the supposition that the bondholders will carry the tax. The county is now carrying a railroad debt of about $75,000, and it will be seen that taxes will be severe there for some time to come.

On Friday last Messrs. J. Speed Smith, R. R. Burnam and David Martin, all Past Master Masons, went to Irvine to confer a special degree upon Mr. Hugh Riddell. After the ceremony the three gentlemen were given a banquet, during which the Irvine band discoursed music. The event was a very pleasant one.

Miss Katie Smith returned home on Thursday last from Mt. Sterling accompanied by Mr. Harrison Thompson. Miss Smith was the guest in Montgomery of her cousin, Miss Virginia Chenault. The latter gave a house party in honor of Miss Smith and Miss Hazelrigg, of Frankfort, which was attended by several from this city.

Mrs. Harry B. Hanger received her lady friends on Tuesday afternoon last from 5 to 7 p.m. at Arlington, the handsome suburban home of the Arnolds. The hostess was graciously assisted by Mesdames George Corzolis, B. L. Middleton, and Miss Beall, of West Virginia, Miss Cecil, of Danville, and Miss Campbell, of Shelbyville.

Dr. F. L. Lapsley will go to Frankfort to-morrow to read a paper on "Obstetrics" before the Kentucky Midland Medical Society. Papers will also be read by Dr. Givens, of Cynthiana, and Dr. Lewis, of Georgetown. Dr. Lapsley was graduated at C. U. in '87, while Dr. Lammie Steele Givens attended C. U. in '82-'83, finishing his studies in Europe.
Mr. William D. Alverson, of New Orleans, came up on Monday to visit his mother, Mrs. Mattie Alverson. He brought his three beautiful little daughters, Mattie May, Florence and Irene, who will spend the summer here. Mr. Alverson will remain only a short while. Friends here remember that he lately lost his wife, who was a daughter of the Chief of the New Orleans Fire Department.

Misses Elsie Palmer, of Richmond, and Ella Higginbotham, of Lexington, have been visiting Mrs. J. M. Higginbotham. Mrs. Milton Elliott and little Cecil, from Mayfield, accompanied by her son, Milton Elliott, from Lexington, visited friends and relatives in Kentucky the past week, and on their return trip to Bryansville, spent Saturday with Mrs. Wm. Bicycle Races at the Fair.
One of the chief attractions at the fair this year will be the bike races by our home wheelmen. There will be a free-for-all, a tandem race (two boys on one wheel) and several fast races. The fun would be enhanced by a race between Joe Bales and D. P. Armer, both candidates for mayor, or between Tom Arnold and Josiah Simmons. Even if these experts refuse to enter, there are plenty of good men who will amuse the crowd.

Officers of City Primary to-morrow.

Joe Willis Will Shift This Animal in the New Post-Office.
A person just from the Nashville Exposition says there is on exhibition in the colored building, probably one of the best educated horses in America. In his compartment is a post-office containing 36 letters, any one of which he can hand you mail from as intelligently as a man. He can readily tell the months apart when placed before him, as well as the days of the week. This animal can change money with almost as much accuracy as a man, from one cent up to $100. He was trained by a colored man who died of him since he has been in Nashville for $10,000 cash.

Miss Clay Has Triumphed—First Lady Trustee Election.
Madison county has a lady school trustee, Miss Laura Clay, President of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association, having been appointed on Saturday by Mrs. Superintendent Million to the position of Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Foxton District, vacated by Trustee Hayden. Miss Clay's sister, Mrs. W. B. Clay, was defeated two years ago for trustee in the same district.

To Miss Clay's efforts alone is due the election of women on the school boards of Lexington. Prior to her entrance into the fight for recognition of women as trustees no interest had been taken in such races for twenty years.
Those who are acquainted with Miss Clay will expect wonders of her, but the sphere is rather narrow for the exercise of the great ability of this talented lady.

Carbuncles

Appeared Each Season Until Blood Was Purified With Wood's Sarsaparilla—An Indolent Ulcer.

"For several years I was troubled with carbuncles on my left side and my back. They would disappear in winter and return the next summer. I began taking Wood's Sarsaparilla and have never had any carbuncles since. My little son had a fever and an indolent ulcer appeared on his left limb and spread half way around it. Our physician recommended a blood purifier and I gave the boy Wood's Sarsaparilla with gratifying results." A. G. B. JAMES, Polkville, Miss.
"I have been a great sufferer from muscular rheumatism and in October began taking Wood's Sarsaparilla. I continued it up until January when I could go about as well as any one and I have had no acute pains since." I. W. MINNICK, Grand Isle, Louisiana.

Malinee Trols.

On Friday, July 24th, quite a large crowd gathered at the Richmond Fair Ground track to enjoy some splendid trotting for so early in the season.

The yearling race, half-mile heats, was the first on the card. When the bell tapped two of the most delicate looking little creatures ever hatched to a sulky appeared on the track, "Joan of Arc," driven by J. J. Neale, and Billy Abshire, driven by J. C. Traynor. Joan won in straight heats, time, 1:22, 1:18, stepping the first quarter in the second heat in 37 seconds; this was the third time Joan of Arc was ever to a bike.

The two-year-old race had only two starters, Col. Clark and Henrietta, driven by Bob Walker. Col. Clark won in straight heats. Time, 2:31, 2:29, driven by Walter Traynor.

The 300 trot or pace was won by Princess Bonnie, driven by Walter Traynor. Last time, 2:32. The crowd was well pleased with the sport and predicted good racing for the week beginning July 27th.

For The Climax.

A Trio of Fast Horses.
On last Friday morning July 9, at the Fair grounds an exhibition of speed was shown by three colts bordering very close upon phenomenal and it is exceedingly doubtful if there were ever three colts that could do the same trick so early in the season.

Mr. J. J. Neale brought out the black colt, "Joan of Arc," 2:18, dam by Nutwood, and after scoring once or twice, stepped a half with ease in 1:17. In a few minutes Mr. R. P. Fox, Jr., brought out Maggie Igo, a nice lay filly by Dr. Hooker, dam by Wilkes bay, and stepped a half in 1:17. Such time as this, so early in the season, by colts of this age seemed like a dream to all who witnessed it, and that the animal lived who could equal at best such a pair had never dawned upon the minds of the spectators, until the little bay filly Joan of Arc, as simple as the nymphs of old, appeared upon the scene, putting a change upon the spirit of their dreams. After a little warming up Joan stepped the half in 1:16, covering the first quarter in 29, and but for a break just past the quarter pole, it is safe to say would have set the mark some seconds lower.

In the afternoon at the matinee, Joan won the race for yearlings, half mile heats, time 1:22, 1:18.

R, J

Mr. Vernon Ky. After the Judges were out a few minutes, says the Herald, in its superb article, curiosity and anxiety poured out upon the troubled waters. In the calm that followed Dr. Davidson justly complimented every speaker of the five, and then announced the winner of the second prize as Mr. Geary, of the State College; the victor foremost, Mr. Nathan Elliott, of Kentucky University. With the frank generosity that always crowns the vanquished at this moment, they turned first to shake the hands of the conquerors before they were borne bodily off the rostrum upon the shoulders of their college fellows.

The winner is a son of Rev. Milton Elliott, lately of Madison county, and is a young man well known to our people, especially of the Kirksville neighborhood. Of his speech the Herald says: "Continuing, it spoke thus of C. U. representative, Mr. Arthur S. Lynn, of the Central University, of Richmond, Ky., made the final speech of the afternoon. His subject, 'Sectionalism—Its Remedy,' was a good one, and well treated. Mr. Lynn's voice was a little against him, his enunciation not being sufficiently clear. But he made a very noble argument about the high duties which equip us for the demands of civilization. The great question most nearly touching upon our present attitude and future prosperity is a deep well for an orator to explore upon a holiday—so to speak. But Mr. Lynn brought forth much of study theory and lofty principle as well as studious thought. Perhaps he exaggerated the sectional difference of the west and south, but the principle was all right, and met with proper appreciation from the audience. He had studied his subject well and taken a clear grasp of some of the crises which confront our closing century—the solution of which is not so easily grasped and so not yet."

"Upon the young men of our colleges," he declared, "rests the work of our Republic." To him that thought opened many vistas and prophecies. To us it brought a very pleasant prophecy—one of great comfort, great promise and great hope—even this, that those young apostles of the Republic to whom we had listened this day were "College men."

The Argument said: "The Kappa Alpha fraternity in particular, and Lexington in general, are just proud of the great victories of the young collegians in oratorical battle at Chautauqua yesterday. Mr. Nathan Elliott, who won the first prize, and J. T. Geary, who won the second prize, both represent Lexington colleges, the latter having been born and reared here. Both young men were members of the Kappa Alpha fraternity and are warm friends of Georgetown; Bush, of Winchester, and Lynn, of Central University, were far beyond the average, and each made telling addresses. Altogether, the contest was perhaps the strongest ever held at Chautauqua.

Elliott is a son of Rev. Milton Elliott, lately of Madison.
